This issue provides a snapshot of the Community-Driven Development CoP and GSG (Global Solutions Group) activities over the past few months, covering topics such as community savings groups, the role of women in economic empowerment, and social sustainability.

The Community-Driven Development CoP connects peers, thought leaders, and practitioners across governments, agencies, and academia, to share ideas and experiences on CDD approaches. This CoP/GSG is facilitated by the Global Programs Unit of the Social Sustainability and Inclusion Global Practice at the World Bank, with inputs from out of Africa and around the world.

The CoP/GSG is a forum for colleagues to share ideas and experiences on CDD approaches. This CoP/GSG is facilitated by the Global Programs Unit of the Social Sustainability and Inclusion Global Practice at the World Bank, with inputs from out of Africa and around the world.

In this issue, we featured a webinar on “The Viability of Savings Groups as a Vehicle for Women’s Economic Empowerment in Africa” that was jointly hosted by the CDD GSG, the Rural Development Global Practice, and the Africa Region. The webinar featured a presentation by Paola Guglielmo, the Global Director of Social Sustainability and Inclusion.
