

Technical Deep Dive : Seismic Risk and Resilience

TOKYO / SENDAI / KOBE | MAR 12 – 16, 2018

W elcome to TDD!

We are very excited to host this Seismic Risk and Resilience. The TDD will be delivered by the Tokyo Development Learning Center (TDLC).

The TDD will bring together World Bank task team leaders and their respective clients (City government officials, line ministries, and others) from across the world to discuss the effective use of information technology for improving land administration, explore policy options and share examples of successful interventions. We are confident that you will find the TDD to be highly engaging and useful.

To assist in making your travel as easy and enjoyable as possible, we would like to provide with you some useful information about your stay. Please review this guide before you depart from your home country.

If there is anything that we can do to make your stay in Tokyo more comfortable please do not hesitate to contact any member of the TDD Team.

We look forward to seeing you in Tokyo for a highly productive and enjoyable week.

Plan your trip

Weather in Mar

March is the month of starting the spring. The weather is nearly perfect, with none of the heavy rains and high temperatures of summer, but the weather can be variable.

What to wear

We would suggest packing gloves, scarf and a warm jacket to go over a sweater (or waterproof jacket). Buy an umbrella when you get here.

Tokyo

High: 14°C / 57.2F

Low : 5°C / 41F

During the week the dress code is business casual.

Please bring your comfortable walking shoes for site visits.

Electricity / Plug Sockets

The electricity in Japan is 100 volts and the electrical outlet plug is Type A. If you need to bring along your own appliances and the standard voltage in your country is in the range of 220 - 240 V, you'll need a voltage converter Type A. Please pack an electric adapter.

100 volts
Type A

Money

Please bring cash (around 100 USD) in major currency (e.g. USD) or in Japanese yen for transportation between the airport and hotel, for emergency use and contingency. There is a currency exchange counter available in the arrival lobby at the airport. Cash can easily be withdrawn from credit card or ATM in most convenience stores.

Please see page 16 for reimbursement by TDLC in detail

Travel insurance

The purchase of travel insurance will be at your own cost.

World Bank TDLC cannot cover travel insurance.

Meals

Most meals in Tokyo are provided by World Bank as a part of the Deep Dive experience, for days that meals not provided please keep the receipt for reimbursement.

The budget for reimbursement is up to JPY 1,500 for each lunch and JPY 4,500 for each dinner. We hope you can find your favorite Japanese food during your stay.

Wifi Hotspots

Thanks to recent efforts by private businesses and governments, public Wi-Fi networks are available for free for tourists in most public areas.

Networks vary widely from easy-to-use ones to others that require registrations.

TDLC provides you.....

Breakfast

All days in Tokyo/Sendai/Kobe

Lunch

All days

Please take breakfast at your hotel from Day 2 to Day 5.
